

About Us

Last Updated Sunday, 13 June 2010

The Orthodox Archbishopric of Johannesburg and Pretoria

The See of St. Mark

The Orthodox Archbishopric of Johannesburg and Pretoria is one of two Archdioceses of the Orthodox Church in South Africa, and covers the northern part of the country.

The other Archdiocese in South Africa is :

The Archdiocese of Good Hope , based in Cape Town.

The Archbishopric of Johannesburg and Pretoria is part of the Greek Orthodox Patriarchate of Alexandria and All Africa, which is the oldest Christian Church in Africa, having been founded by the Holy Apostle St Mark in the 1st century.
hit Counter